Onondaga County Sheriff's Department, $52,986 - $75,423
Salaries vary in the Town and Village Police Departments

The resulting open competitive eligible list will be used to fill vacancies in any jurisdiction where the title exists. Changing conditions may make it necessary to certify for future vacancies at higher or lower salaries than those announced.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Entry-Level Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff Examination Series will be held on a statewide basis on September 18, 2021. This series may include titles for Local Police Officer, Deputy Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Patrol Officer, Constable, etc. and also State titles for Environmental Conservation Officer, Forest Ranger, Park Patrol Officer, and University Police Officer.

The Onondaga County examination for Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff (Police) will also be held in the Spring 2022. A candidate is permitted to take examinations in the Entry-Level Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff Examination Series on ONE of these dates, but not both. Any candidate who sits for any examination in this series on September 18, 2021 will not be eligible to sit for the Spring 2022 examination administration. Any candidate interested in a Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff (Police) position within Onondaga County must take either Examination #68-725 to be held on September 18, 2021, or the Spring 2022 examination that will be announced in the Spring of 2022.

Any candidate who participates in the Entry-Level Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff Examination Series on September 18, 2021, SHOULD NOT APPLY for the Spring 2022 examination administration. Candidates who take any examination in the September 18, 2021 administration of this series in any jurisdiction and apply to take the Onondaga County examination for Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff (Police) examination in the Spring of 2022 will be deemed ineligible for the Spring 2022 examination.

CONTINUOUS RECRUITMENT PROGRAM: This is a combined continuous recruitment examination for entry-level law enforcement officer positions. The names of successful candidates will be inter-filed, in order of final score, to a Police Officer / Deputy Sheriff (Police) eligible list which will be used to fill present and anticipated vacancies for the title Deputy Sheriff (Police) in the Onondaga County Sheriff's Department and the title Police Officer in the City of Syracuse Police Department and in various Onondaga County Town and Village Police Departments. Candidates appointed or removed from the list as a result of canvass in one law enforcement agency will be removed from the list for further consideration in all law enforcement agencies. Candidates should be aware that because this is a continuous recruitment list, all results of canvass (i.e. declinations) will remain in effect indefinitely. Removals and restrictions to the eligible list may be withdrawn only through written notice to the Onondaga County Personnel Department. The Onondaga County Personnel Department reserves the right to terminate this special recruitment program and establish the periodic type of examination in concurrence with the federal District Court Order.

DUTIES: This is law enforcement work involving responsibility to enforce federal and state laws and local ordinances and to maintain order in an assigned area. Under the general supervision of a superior officer, an employee in this class performs routine patrol duties on an assigned shift. Does related work as required.

RESIDENCE REQUIREMENTS:

Residence at Time of Application:
Candidates must have resided in New York State for not less than one (1) month immediately preceding the date of exam.

Residence at Time of Appointment:
Police Officer (City of Syracuse, Towns and Villages) – Preference in appointment may be given to local residents of the appointing authority.

*City of Syracuse candidates must be residents of the City of Syracuse within six (6) months of their date of graduation from the academy, and maintain their City residency for five (5) years.

Deputy Sheriff (Police) - Candidates must be residents of Onondaga County of one of its contiguous counties (Cayuga, Cortland, Madison, Oswego) at time of appointment. Preference in appointment may be given to local residents of the appointing authority.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: On the date of examination, candidates must meet the following requirements:

Age: Candidates must be at least 19 years and 6 months old on or before the written examination to be admitted to the test. Eligibility for appointment begins when candidates reach their 20th birthday. On April 26, 1999, Chapter 32 of the Laws of 1999 amended Section 58 of Civil Service Law to establish a maximum age limitation of 35 years of age as of the date the individual takes the written examination (eligibility ceases upon a candidates 35th birthday). Time spent on military duty, not exceeding a total of six (6) years (Volunteer service after July 1, 1970 is limited to a total of four (4) years unless performed during a period of war or national emergency), shall be subtracted from the age of any applicant who has passed his/her 35th birthday.

Section 58.1(a) of Civil Service Law requires that applicants not be "more than 35 years of age as of the date the individual takes the written examination…" Candidates who may be impacted by the maximum age requirement and who are requesting an alternate test date (for active military duty, Sabbath Observance or for an alternate test date situation which meets the conditions of the Onondaga County's alternate test date policy) are advised to contact Onondaga County Personnel to discuss their request.

At time of appointment Candidates must meet the following requirements:

Education: Candidates must be high school graduates or holders of a high school equivalency diploma issued by an education department of any of the states of the United States or holders of a comparable diploma issued by any territory, commonwealth, or possession of the United States or by the Canal Zone or holders of a report from the United States Armed Forces certifying successful completion of the tests related to general education development, high school level at time of appointment.
Citizenship: Candidates must be citizens of the United States at time of appointment.
License: Possession of a valid New York State driver's license at time of appointment.
Physical: Candidates must meet the prescribed general physical and medical conditions as stated in the Municipal Police Training Council standards.
Psychological Evaluation: As stated in Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, you will be required to participate in a psychological evaluation to determine your fitness to perform the essential duties of the position prior to appointment. Failure to meet the standards may result in your offer of employment being rescinded or in your disqualification. An eligible will be called for a psychological assessment as needed to fill existing and anticipated vacancies.
Investigative Screening: As stated in Section 58 of the Civil Service Law, there will be a background investigation conducted in accordance with the standards of the municipal police training council (MPTC). Derogatory information will be evaluated and may result in disqualification. All convictions must be reported. Conviction of a felony or misdemeanor, or any falsified or omitted information, may bar appointment or result in removal after appointment, depending upon the relationship of the violation or omission to the duties of the position.

SPECIAL NECESSARY REQUIREMENT: Candidates for appointment or promotion to positions in Onondaga County government which require the operation of motor vehicles must, at the time of appointment, possess an appropriate NY State driver's license and a dependable personal vehicle or must have reasonable access to private/public transportation.

SUBJECT OF EXAMINATION: This examination will consist of a qualifying weighted written test, and a qualifying physical agility test (held at a later date). Only candidates who pass both parts of the test will be considered for appointment. The written test will be designed to test for knowledge, skills and/or abilities in the following areas:

1. SITUATIONAL JUDGMENT – These questions test for the ability to identify appropriate and effective responses to work-related challenges. You will be presented with scenarios that reflect the types of challenges one could encounter in a work environment. Each scenario will be followed by several responses to the scenario. You must rate the effectiveness of each response.

2. LANGUAGE FLUENCY – These questions test for the ability to read, understand, and present a clear and accurate summary of information. For some questions, you will be given a brief reading passage followed by four statements, each summarizing the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given several sentences, one of which contains a spelling, grammatical, or punctuation error. You must then select the line that contains the error.

3. INFORMATION ORDERING AND LANGUAGE SEQUENCING – These questions test for the ability to properly identify the sequence or order of events, or to organize information to fit a timeline. You will be given a brief reading passage followed by one or more questions. You must identify the proper sequence of events in order to answer one or more questions.

4. PROBLEM SENSITIVITY & REASONING – These questions test for the ability to apply information and to identify a problem or potential problem. For some questions, you will be given information in the form of policies, rules, regulations, laws, followed by a situation. You must then identify the problem and apply the information to select the best course of action to take. For other questions, you will be given a scenario and mock witness statements. You must use this information to answer one or more questions about the scenario.

5. SELECTIVE ATTENTION - These questions test for the ability to focus on completing a task and to pay attention to important details while performing repetitive and monotonous tasks. You will be presented with a series of letters, symbols, and/or numbers. You must select the choice that contains the series of letters, symbols, and/or number that matches exactly.

6. VISUALIZATION – These questions test for the ability to imagine how something will look when it is moved around or when its parts are changed, moved, or rearranged. You will be presented with an image of a face followed by four images of faces. Each face is disguised or altered in some way. Three of the images have a difference in facial structure or facial features. You must select the choice that contains the image with the identical facial structure and facial features.

7. SPATIAL ORIENTATION – These questions test for the ability to understand how to navigate within spaces or how to get from one point to another. You will be provided with a map followed by one or more questions. You must imagine yourself at a certain location and orient yourself to the direction you would move to get to another location in the shortest (least distance) route.

The rating key for this examination will be established by the New York State Civil Service Commission prior to the date of the test, upon recommendation of a committee of police experts who will review all the questions for appropriateness and the key answers for correctness. There will be no review of the questions by candidates. This committee was selected with the assistance and endorsement of the Police Conference of New York, Inc., the New York State Association of PBA's, Inc., the New York State Association of Chiefs of Police, Inc., and the NYS Sheriff's Association.

TEST GUIDE: A Guide for the Written Test for the Entry-Level Law Enforcement Officer Series (for all municipalities except White Plains) is available at the New York State website: http://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm.

CALCULATORS: Unless otherwise notified, candidates are PROHIBITED to use quiet, hand-held, and solar or battery powered calculators. Devices with typewriter keyboards, `Spell Checkers,' `Personal Digital Assistants,' `Address Books,' `Language Translators,' `Dictionaries,' or any similar devices are prohibited. You may not bring books or other reference materials. You may not bring cellular phones, beepers, pagers, or headphones.

*PHYSICAL FITNESS TEST STANDARDS: Held on an "as needed" basis.

Candidates passing the written portion of the examination will be required to pass a qualifying physical-agility fitness test before they will be certified for permanent appointment. These tests will be given as the needs of the service require. Selected candidates must successfully complete a physical fitness-screening test (physical agility) designed to assess the underlying physiological capacity of a candidate to learn and perform the essential job functions of an entry level Police Officer. The standards for this portion of this examination were established by the MPTC (Municipal Police Training Council) on February 1999 and revised on March 2006, and contain the following test elements: Bent-leg sit-ups, push-ups, and 1.5 mile run. Candidates are advised to assess their ability to qualify in the elements of the test battery. Our department strongly recommends that you have your physician review the test elements described below and certify that you are physically capable of participating in the physical fitness-screening test.

Events

Sit up Muscular Endurance - The score indicated below is the number of bent-leg sit-ups performed in one minute.

Push-up Muscular Endurance (Upper Body) – The score below is the number of full body repetitions that a candidate must complete without breaks.

1.5 Mile Run Cardiovascular Capacity - The (time) score indicated below is calculated in minutes:seconds.
